LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP

Application Instructions

Rate increases were approved by the Board of Directors November 2015.

INSTRUCTIONS for the New Lifetime Form (2016) that includes a new rates.

1. Couple must be living at the same residence.
2. Lifetime member must be age 50+.
3. Birthdate must be on the form, this also helps in calculating level of payment for Lifetime Couples Membership. IF the member 'does not' want their birthday published make sure this is noted on the form.
4. If a couple falls into two age brackets, ages are averaged together.

In some cases it may be more economical to purchase 2 Single Lifetime memberships.

Examples:

- (a) Son or Daughter is age 50+ and lives with Parent or vice versa
- (b) Roommates, Couples, Spouses with varying ages, etc.
5. If/when you have a couple where one is a Lifetime member and the other one is not, average the ages, select the membership level and then deduct the annual fee "if" they are paid and current with their membership dues.

Examples:

- (a) Husband is already a Lifetime Member (age 75), Spouse (age 67) is a current Annual Member at $75. Their average age is 71 so couples fee would be $1,050 for 2 ($450 to add the spouse) less the current Annual Membership fee of $75. The spouse pays $375 for her Lifetime membership.

$$$450 - $75 = $375$$

- (b) Grandchild is 42 and grandparent is 85, Only the Grandparent can purchase a Lifetime Membership.

- (c) Roommates, one is 57 and the other one is 83, average age 70. If they purchased (2) Single Lifetime memberships it would cost $1,800. A couples Lifetime Membership - same address is $1,275 and they save $525.

NOTE:

- (a) Keep in mind we have a lot of scenarios i.e. Parent and Child (Grandchild/parent), Couples, Spouses, Roommate arrangements, etc.
- (b) We also have households with Mixed Membership types i.e. one Low Income and one Regular Membership 'or' one Regular and one Lifetime. We also have situations where only one person is active and a member at the ASAC currently, we want to encourage more couples to become active members at the center.

On the reverse side is Pricing sheet for both Individual and Couple Lifetime Membership. Please recycle any old forms you may have that are no longer valid.
